GENERAL SUMMARY.

By the arrival of the Anderson we are placed in possession of dates from St. Louis to June 19th.

The Anderson brought the Express and papers of the Cortez, which steamer arrived at Portland on the 2d inst.

The following news is from the Portland Times.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26th.
The Times and Call have the following dispatch:

The Pony arrived at Fort Churchill with New York dates to June 17th.

An impression prevails both North and South that a National Convention will be called to settle existing difficulties.

The people of the South are dissatisfied with the Confederate Government, especially since Kentucky issued a Union manifesto.

In Virginia one-half of the counties have called a Union Convention to organize a Provincial Government and depose Gov. Letcher.

The news is generally more pacific since the avowed sympathy of France with the Administration.

The tenor of the English debates in Parliament are very conciliatory, and the Ministry are backing down from their menacing position.

A serious riot occurred in Newfoundland against the English Government.

The steamer Vanderbilt is chartered as a man-of-war.

The President called to-day upon the Governor of Indiana for six additional regiments.

The regiment of mounted riflemen and four companies of Infantry have been ordered from New Mexico.

It is said that the troops from Texas, given up to Texas by the traitor Twiggs, and who have arrived at New York, will be sent to Oregon.

The most reliable accounts make the secession forces in Virginia between 50 and 60,000 men.

Four companies of infantry have left Kansas for St. Joseph. Two companies of infantry and one of dragoons left Leavenworth to-day for Kansas city. It is evident that trouble is anticipated in that quarter.

The Kentucky troops at Harper's Ferry and Maryland Heights will fight under no flag but the Stars and Stripes.

Belgium will not recognize in any form the "Confederate States."

Gen. Beauregard issued a proclamation from Manassas Junction, extravagantly picturing the deplorable consequences of the expected invasion of the Federal troops.

Gen. Buckner, of the Kentucky State Guard, has ordered all the soldiers under his command to swear fidelity to the Constitution of the United States.

St. Louis, June 19th, 1861.
On June 12th, the Governor of Missouri issued a proclamation, calling for 5,000 volunteers to oppose the Federal Government. He went to Booneville and collected a force for a first stand, where he was attacked by the Federal force under Gen. Lyon, and routed with a loss of 300 killed and a large number of prisoners taken.

There was a skirmish near Fort Monroe on the 16th. Col. Phelps sent three companies to drive in cattle belonging to secessionists. They were fired into by a company of light horse wounding three men.

The rebels are landing large bodies of troops seven miles above Newport News. An attack from them is expected.

New York, June 17.
Flying rumors state that a fight took place on the London railroad near Vienna, Va., between an Ohio regiment and a band of rebels, probably an engagement without serious results.

WASHINGTON, June 17.
It is reported that the Legislature of Maryland will attempt to pass an act relieving the State of Virginia from paying damages to citizens of Maryland, who sustained loss by the destruction of railroads.

New York, June 17.
The Bavaria arrived from Southampton on the 6th inst., bringing 50,000 stand of rifles for the United States Government.

SACRAMENTO, June 28th.
A fire broke out on the afternoon of the 28th in San Francisco, destroying the ambrotype establishment of Clarke & Smith.

A fire occurred on the evening of the same day, destroying two or three small tenement on Chinese alley.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The British Government has decided not to allow privateers to enter their ports.

Lord John Russell announced in Parliament that the Government had determined to prohibit privateers and armed vessels from bringing prizes to British ports, and that France had determined to abide by the law prohibiting privateers from remaining in port over twenty-four hours.

It is said that England and France have sent a proposition to Washington based upon the declaration of the Paris Congress.

Details of News.

The Tribune's dispatch says a letter received from about the Anconita says they were in hourly expectation of being ordered to attack Pig Point Battery, in conjunction with the Harriet Lane and Cumberland. They also expect to pay a visit to Sewall's Point and Crany Island.

It appears that Arlington Heights were on the point of being attacked on Monday night. One of Lieut. Thompson's company came in toward midnight to the camp of the 60th Regiment, reporting the enemy coming in with cavalry, infantry and artillery, at a distance of only two miles. Our troops were forced in line of battle, but for some reason unknown, the rebels concluded at the last moment to defer their project and withdrew.

The order recalling Minister Harvey goes out on Wednesday's steamer. Were not all our ships of war absolutely requisite for the blockade, he would be brought home in a man-of-war as a prisoner. His guilt is denied in some quarters, but it is useless, for the evidence is overwhelming against him.

At 1 o'clock this morning a large force marched through Georgetown toward Point of Rocks. The combined forces in conjunction with Patterson's, Collier's and perhaps McClelland's, will effectually surround Harper's Ferry.

The rebels mean to make a stand and perhaps an attack from Manassas Junction, which is, according to reports received by Government, strongly fortified. The cannon are in a semi-circle, in the centre of which is the railroad station.

The rebels talk about flanking the Washington lines and capturing the city directly without going around by Baltimore; it is sure that that place would rise in a moment if the Capital was taken.

It is reported that the evacuation of Harper's Ferry by rebels has already begun. It is certain Gen. Johnston has been largely reinforced within a few days and it may be has intentions of trying the metal of Patterson, McClelland and Cadwallader's command. He will find himself surrounded and out of reach of aid from the South. If he retreats toward Manassas Junction, he will be closely followed by the Federal forces now concentrated around Harper's Ferry, and the retrograde movements will hardly stop north of Richmond.

There is reason to believe that Lieut. Gen. Scott, leaves to-night for Frederick City to command the Federal forces in person. His horse went forward to Baltimore to-day.

WASHINGTON, June 11.
Troops will be dispatched to Frederick, Maryland, on Thursday, to protect Union men, it being understood there is a plot on foot, among the secessionists, to depose Governor Hicks on that day and establish a Provisional Government. It is now believed there will be a speedy advance on Harper's Ferry.

General Banks takes command at Baltimore to-day.

Col. Stone left this city to-day with troops going in the direction of Leesburg.

It is said Mr. Curtis, Member of Congress from Iowa, will be appointed Brigadier General and given the command of the Iowa troops.

A special dispatch, dated Washington, 10th inst., says: "Ten thousand troops will be in Baltimore within thirty-six hours. The city is in a fermentation. At the first sign of uprising, the city will be bombarded from Fort McHenry."

A special dispatch to the New York Herald dated Baltimore, June 11th, says that General Banks' headquarters is at Fort McHenry. Gen. Cadwallader takes an important command Southward.

HAGERSTOWN, Md. June 9.
The friends of Gov. Hicks have visited General Thomas and asked him to send troops to Frederick City; disloyalty is strong among the members of the Legislature.

The destruction of the dam on the Potomac by secessionists caused great indignation among the people of Southern Maryland. The Virginians attempted to destroy the dam No. 6, but were arrested by the Home Guards from Williamsport—an engagement is progressing, but the particulars are unknown, the fight being ten miles distant. Numbers of Virginians are escaping.

Every man in Virginia, between the age of sixteen and sixty, is required to enter the service before next Thursday.

The secessionists claim 15,000 men at Harper's Ferry, but the Unionists say there are only 9,000.

A lady, writing to a friend in Washington, who saw the fight at Aquia Creek, says there were 15 killed, and she has no doubt 50 more were killed and wounded in the first attack. Great pains have been taken to conceal the facts from the friends of the victims. She says there were 4,000 troops in the batteries, and the loss in the last attack must have been large.

Hon. John Cochrane has been authorized by the Secretary of War to raise a regiment for three years, and to command it with the rank of colonel.

Troops leaving here take twelve day's rations with them, camp equipage and entrenchment tools.

FORTRESS MONROE, June 9, }
via BALTIMORE, June 11, }

General Butler, having learned that the rebels were fortifying a camp with strong batteries at Great Bethel, nine miles from Hampton, on the Yorktown road, he deemed it necessary to dislodge them. Accordingly, movements were made last night from Fortress Monroe and Newport News. About midnight Colonel Duryea's Zouaves and Col. Townsend's Albany regiment crossed the river at Hampton, by means of six large bateaux manned by the Naval Brigade, and took up the line of march. The former was some two miles in advance of the other. At the same time Col. Bendix, 6th regiment, and detachments of Vermont and Massachusetts regiments, at Newport, moved forward to form a junction with the regiments from Fortress Monroe at Little Bethel, about half-way between Hampton and Great Bethel. The Zouaves passed Little Bethel about 4 o'clock in the morning. Col. Bendix's regiment arrived at the foot of the dam, the signal of the roads, took position at the intersection of the roads. Not understanding the signal, the German regiment, in the darkness of the night, fired upon Col. Townsend's column, marching in close order and led by Lieut. Butler, sent and Aid-de-Camp of Gen. Butler, with two pieces of artillery. Other accounts say that Col. Townsend's regiment fired first. At all events, the fire of the Albany regiment was harmless, while that of the German was fatal, killing one man and seriously wounding two or three others, with several other slight casualties. The Albany regiment, being back of the Germans, discovered from the accountments left on the field that the supposed enemy were their friends. They had, in the meantime, fired nine rounds of small arms and a field piece. The Zouaves, hearing the firing, turned and also fired on the Albany regiment.

At day break, Col. Allen's and Col. Carr's regiments moved from the rear of the fortress to support the main body. The mistake at Little Bethel having been ascertained, the buildings were burned and a Major and two prominent secessionists taken prisoners. The troops then advanced on Great Bethel, but their three small pieces of artillery were unable to cope with the heavy rifled cannon of the enemy. The rebel battery was completely masked. No men could be seen—only the flashes of the guns. There were no less than 1,000 men behind the batteries of the rebels. A well concerted movement might have secured the position, but Brig. Gen. Pierce, who commanded the expedition, appears to have lost his presence of mind, and the Troy regiment stood for one hour exposed to a galling fire, when an order to retreat was at last given. Lieut. Greble of the U. S. army was struck by a cannon ball and instantly killed. He had spiked his gun and was gallantly endeavoring to withdraw his command. Capt. G. W. Wilson, of the Troy regiment, after the order to retreat was given, took possession of the gun and brought it off the field with the corpse of the Lieutenant. Both were brought to Fortress Monroe this evening. There are about twenty-five killed and one hundred of the Federal troops wounded. Lieut. Butler deserves great credit for bringing off the killed and wounded; several of the latter are now in the hospital here. Great indignation is manifested against Brig. Gen. Pierce.

It is not known how many were killed or wounded in the unfortunate collision of the Federal troops previous to marching on Great Bethel. The loss was, however, considerable. The fire of our troops on the masked battery did apparently very little execution, our artillery being composed of small field pieces and howitzers, against the rifled cannon of the rebels. The attack lasted but half an hour when a retreat was sounded and executed in good order. The troops throughout this trying affair behaved well. The estimated number killed was about 30 and 100 wounded. Major Withrop, aid to Gen. Butler, and Lieut. Col. Grinnell of the New York 1st regiment are missing. Among the killed is Lieut. Greble of the U. S. Artillery; he was struck on the right side of the forehead by a shot from a rifled cannon which tore away the upper part of his head.

NEW YORK, June 11.
The Herald's account of the affair at Great Bethel states that after the unfortunate mistake was rectified, the forces comprising the First, Second and Third New York regiments, joined by detachments of the Fourth Massachusetts, First Ohio, Fifth and Ninth New York regiments, with two light field pieces, under Lieut. Greble, came upon an advanced guard of rebels, defeated and drove them back, taking thirty prisoners. They then advanced on Great Bethel in York county, where they came upon the enemy 4,000 strong and drove right into them. They were in position, protected by six heavy batteries, mounting six and twelve pounders, and heavy rifled cannon. Both Duryea's Zouaves and Hawkin's regiment charged right up to the batteries, but could not pass the ditch, and were compelled to fall back. After two hours contest the ammunition gave out and the troops retired in perfect order.

The Tribune's report says all but one rifled gun of the enemy were silenced, and that when the Zouaves charged the enemy scattered. Not more than half the forces were brought into action. Lieut. Greble's body was gallantly saved by being brought off the field on his own cannon.

The Post's special dispatch says there is great excitement here over the news of the conflict at Great Bethel. It is the general opinion among military men that there was gross mismanagement and bad leadership of the Federal forces.

The secessionists are looking up emboldened by the repulse of our troops.

A prominent Baltimorean, now in this city, states that several secession flags are now flying in Baltimore, and that Gen. Banks is needed to keep the rebels in check.

The border warfare between Maryland and Virginia is becoming very bitter.

WASHINGTON, June 11.

FREDERICK CITY, June 11.

A gentleman conversant with the localities in and around Harper's Ferry, and who left Hagerstown this morning, learns that 10,000 U. S. troops are between the towns of Greencastle and Chambersburg from whence they are marching. The troops recently at Point of Rocks have certainly been withdrawn and are now with the main body at Harper's Ferry. Much dissatisfaction, it is reported, exists among the Kentuckians on the Maryland Heights, and rumor is current that in a few days they intend displaying the stars and stripes, and probably desert in a body.

HAGERSTOWN, June 11.

The Government has evidently taken possession of the Franklin County Railroad.

The Unionists at Williamsport are fearful that the rebels will cross the river and burn the town. The Guards along the whole line of the Potomac have been doubled.

Reliable information gives 13,000 men at Harper's Ferry.

LEAVENWORTH, June 13.

Serious hostilities are threatening at Kansas City. Reported secession forces, twelve hundred, near Independence, are waiting reinforcements from below.

Two companies of the First Regiment Kansas Volunteers, recently mustered into service here, are at Wyandott, two miles from Kansas City.

Major-General Stone, of the State militia, last night ordered the 1st Regiment into camp at Lawrence.

Colonel R. B. Mitchell was ordered to march to Wyandott to co-operate with the Government forces. This regiment is armed, but not otherwise equipped. Captain Jenkinson's command of 300 mounted men, armed with carbines and revolvers, also left Lawrence for Wyandott this morning.

An affray occurred in the streets this morning between D. R. Anthony, proprietor of the Conservative, and R. C. Satterlee, of the Herald, in which several shots were exchanged, one severely wounding a bystander, Satterlee received a ball in the right side, and died in twenty minutes.

EUROPEAN INTELLIGENCE.

The steamer Fulton arrived at New York on the 10th of June, bringing dates from Southampton to the 29th May.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times says that there is no reason why Hayti may not soon excite the commiseration of the French Emperor, precisely for the same reason that the Dominicans had excited that of the Spanish government.

The general tendency of American securities is unfavorable. There had been a decline of about 1s. in the London corn market of May 18th. The Times' Paris correspondent says that a feeling of languor, and even uneasiness, prevails among commercial men throughout France. The political disputes in the United States have produced a partial stagnation in French enterprise. Silk, at Lyons, is becoming worse under the influence of the unfavorable news from America. Continued dry weather has had an unfavorable effect upon the Paris flour market. Wheat has risen 50 cents a sack of 150 kilograms.

It is asserted at Rome that an Encyclical was being secretly circulated with the object of exciting agitation among the clergy, and dispatches from Rome, of date May 26th, say that rumors are current that the Government has proposed to guarantee the present extent of the pontifical territory, on condition of the evacuation of Rome by the French.

A telegram from Cadiz says that a great movement is taking place among vessels stationed at Algeiras.

At the sitting of the Berlin Chamber of Deputies of May 27th, the Minister of Justice replying to a question addressed to him in reference to the right of citizenship of those who had received the King's amnesty, said that the right of Prussian citizenship was forfeited by a stay of ten years abroad.

The steamship Arabia with dates from Queenstown, Ireland, to the 2d of June, arrived at Halifax on the 10th.

In the House of Commons on the 30th of May, Lord John Russell intimated that an Englishman had been forced into military service at New Orleans. They had ordered his release. Other similar circumstances had occurred in the Southern States, but they appeared to have been unauthorized, and assurances had been received from the Montgomery Government deprecating such acts. During his speech Lord John also deprecated the exultation with which John Ramsden had alluded to the bursting of the bubble of democracy in America. In common with the great bulk of his countrymen, he (Russell) was deeply pained at the civil war which had broken out in the United States, and which arose from the accursed poison of slavery left there by England, and which had clung round them like a poisoned garment from the first hour of their independence.

The London Times, commenting on the American blockade and England's position, urges that now, while there is yet time, the European Governments should come to an understanding on the subject, and adopt a public law.

American citizens in Paris favorable to the Union, met together on May 29th. About one hundred and fifty attending, one-third being ladies, including the wife of General Scott. Mr. Crowder presided. A resolution was adopted, pledging the meeting to maintain the Union under any circumstances.

Mr. Dayton said, that since his arrival in Paris he could detect no unfriendly feeling on the part of France to the United States, and certainly no French citizen could be found among the privateers. He expressed the conviction that the rebellion would be put down.

Cassius M. Clay spoke at some length. He was energetic on the conduct of England. He declared that if ever the flag of England became associated with the black flag of the South, the banner of the United States and the tri-color of France would be seen against her—for France had not forgotten St. Helena.

Col. Fremont spoke, and was received with enthusiasm. He made quite a moderate speech. He regretted this war, but felt confident it would end in the triumph of truth and justice. He had been called back to America and lost no time in responding, as he was ready to give his best services to his country.

The Rev. Dr. McClintock followed. He did not attach any importance to the muttering of the English press or the Secretary of War. The people of England had not spoken, and when they did their voice would not be found on the side of piracy and slavery.

A decree had been issued opening all the sea-ports of France for cotton yarn of certain numbers.

The Paris Bourse on the 31st of May closed heavy at 69f. 90c.

Public writers in France have received warning to moderate their tone against the Catholic clergy.

The attention of the British Government was called, in the House of Commons, to the fact that France was largely arming their navy, especially in iron-plated steamers.

In the House of Lords there was a discussion of the India supply of cotton question. Earl Grey pledged the Government to do all in its power to advance the growth of the staple there.

At a meeting of the Great Eastern Ship Company, it was stated that the employment of the ship by the Federal Government would not be in accordance with the Queen's Proclamation.

It appears that the Great Powers will guarantee the integrity of the Papal territory.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT—STOMACH AND KIDNEYS.—Between these two organs there exists a close and intimate relation, which is demonstrated by the wasting which occurs in all diseases afflicting the kidneys. The disordered stomach is often the first index of renal irregularities. Holloway's remedies used at that juncture would cut short many a serious and fatal attack. They act with wonderful efficacy on every organ of secretion, but especially do they regulate the stomach, liver, and kidneys in restoring their healthy functions, and casting out any obstructions or impurities. It is necessary for the Ointment to be well rubbed over the affected parts twice daily, when it is absorbed, and much augment the purifying and salutary influence of the Pills.

DRUGS & MEDICINES.

THE WORLD'S FRIEND!
Holloway's Ointment.
A Cure for Piles and Fistulas.

Inflammation of sensitive parts, piles, fistulas, and such like painful diseases may be presently relieved, and ultimately cured, by the proper and diligent use of this cooling and healing ointment. A single application, in such cases, is almost invariably followed by of Piles: are many days have elapsed the anxious patient will experience a wonderful degree of ease from this treatment. They are equally suitable to both sexes, and all ages.

Coughs, Colds, and Asthma.

These complaints of the chest come on with alarming rapidity. The Ointment should be assiduously rubbed at least twice a day on the chest and between the shoulders, when the violence of all symptoms will gradually give way, the breathing become longer, and the oppression less. No medicines are more efficient in chest complaints, none can be used with greater safety and certainty. Both Pills and Ointment are accompanied by very clear and simple directions for using them.

A Man who refused to have his Leg off.
"From the Kilrush Advertiser, June 2nd, 1890."
BENJAMIN COX, Esquire, Magistrate, said in the Board Room at Kilrush, that he knew a man who had been in the Infirmary and was actually turned out as incurable, on his way home to Kilrush, he purchased at Kinnis, Holloway's Pills and Ointment, for, as he said, he could not be worse with him. This man, said Mr. Cox, became by their use as sound and as healthy as any man in the room. These celebrated Pills and Ointment will cure any wound, sore, or ulcer, however long standing, if properly used according to the printed directions.

Gout and Rheumatism.
The essence of two diseases, in the blood, which floats through each vessel, the pain-giving poison, which irritates and inflames every tissue it comes in contact with, and produces the hot, swollen, elastic enlargement about the joints so characteristic of gouty diseases. The philosophy of cure consists in governing the circulation of the blood, which is rapidly purified by the use of the Pills. The Ointment, when rubbed upon the skin, penetrates the system through the pores, acts in unison with the Pills, and soon effects a cure.

Dropsy, Swollen Legs or Ankles.
The various kinds of dropsies, whether windy or watery, arise from some obstruction to the free circulation of the blood, which causes the fluids to depend on the inflamed state of some secreting surface.
Holloway's remedies, of which the efficacy cannot be exaggerated, act directly upon the blood, the absorb-ents and secretions, with a power that no dropsy, however inveterate, can long resist. They remove the proper flow of blood to every organ, and purify it likewise, they filter out everything that is morbid or injurious, they thoroughly regenerate every function, yet potent as they are for good, they are powerless for evil. They do not contain mercury or any noxious substances. They act safely and certainly.

Bad Legs, Bad Breasts, and Old Ulcers.
This invaluable Ointment was never known to fail in the cure of the above diseases, any sore, or any ulcer, as can be proved by innumerable testimonials from persons who had been discharged from Hospitals as incurable, and yet by perseverance they have been made as sound as they were the day they were born, by this incomparable Ointment. For pimples, blotches, scald heads, and scorbutic humours, it is equally efficacious.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bad Legs	Chilblains	Fistulas	Sore-throats
Bad Breasts	Chapped Hands	Gout	Skin-diseases
Burns	Corns (Soft)	Hemorrhoids	Scurvy
Bunions	Contracted and Piles	Lumbago	Tumours
Cuts and Mos-	Scalds	Rheumatism	Ulcers
quitos and Salt-Flies	Strains	Sore Throat	Wounds
Coxsack	Strepitis	Sore Nipples

There is a considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.
N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each Pot. n13

Greeley's Bourbon Bitters.
THE POPULARITY OF THESE BITters is justly due to the purity of the materials of which they are prepared, and the delicate combination of simple alteratives and tonics so well calculated to act upon every part of the digestive organs, and through them to reach and cure all complaints arising from a diseased condition of the Stomach and bowels.

GREELEY'S BOURBON WHISKY BITTERS
are highly nourishing and fattening, and as a Tonic for old people, delicate ladies, consumptive patients, and all weakly persons, they cannot be surpassed. In all cases of Weakness or Debility, they will give immediate relief, and impart a strong, healthy tone to the system. For the cure of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Nervous Diseases, Liver Complaints, Weakness, or Debility, Flatulency and Nausea, and all complaints consequent upon a disordered state of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels, they are not equalled. As an agreeable stomachic, they are much admired; they sharpen the appetite, brighten the intellect, and infuse new life and vigor. No one who uses these Bitters can be subject to an attack of Fever and Ague or Diarrhoea.
Put up in Quart Bottles, in cases of one and two dozen, and for sale by Druggists, Grocers and Liquor Merchants everywhere.
